Fox's Chosen

Summary

A short Sailor Moon-style transformation sequence with an Original Character I invented during my pre-teen years, around the year 2002. On Earth, Emily is an almost normal 16-year-old teen because James McCloud's spirit has given her the power to become Emily McCloud, his son Fox's Chosen!

- A translation of L'Élué de Fox by MiaQc

"No!" Emily says as she sees a giant robot sent by Andross threatening her city. "I have to intervene!"

The 16-year-old teen with long blond hair closes her blue eyes.

"By James's spirit Will..."

Her body is surrounded by light. Her clothes, a shirt and jeans, are no longer visible.

"FOX! DNA BREAKER!"

The light explodes and Emily is now wearing Fox's uniform: a white vest, a green jumpsuit with a red scarf and gray boots. She spins. A fox tail sprouts from her back. Her blond hair becomes short and reddish. Gray headphone-radio appears on her head with fox ears. Emily opens her eyes. They are now green.

"Blessed by James's spirit, I am Fox's Chosen, Emily McCloud!"

Her transformation is complete. Emily materializes her Arwing, climbs inside and go to battle the giant robot.
